ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Treasurer.

We are authorized to announce R. Owen Green, a Special constable, a candidate for Sheriff, Commonwealth, of the Second district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Railroad Commissioner.

We are authorized to announce R. Owen Green, a Special constable, a candidate for Sheriff, Commonwealth, of the Second district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Colson men, like Democrats, are not expecting a blessing.

Harmony is not needed in Tennessee and it is not necessary in Kentucky.

It seems that the majority of the Republicans of this district are Boring.

The pie counter is a great attraction in a political contest, but it can not capture the whole army.

Think of a Christian gentleman using thousands of dollars in a fight for a nomination to corrupt his own party. Just think.

At Dawson Springs five women visitors were run down on a trolley by a freight train. Two were killed and three seriously injured.

The State election in Tennessee resulted in a decided victory for the Democrats. Not a Republican was elected to the State Court bench.

The Courier-Journal of last Saturday published a splendid picture of Mr. Jas. Garnett, Jr., this city, who may go after the Democratic nomination for Attorney General.

No man can ever hope to be recognized as a Democrat or as a Republican if he votes first on one side and then the other. Voters of that class are known the world over as Mugwumps.

Quite a number of Republicans who made a fight for Mr. Colson, in this county, are outspoken in their denunciation of Mr. Boring and his methods, and they declare they will not vote for him.

The Louisville Times does not believe in living for self alone, hence it has arranged to give a free picnic, an all day outing to the worthy poor of the city of Louisville, at Fern Creek, August 22.

Jefferson county rural free delivery was inaugurated August 15, while on September 1st and October 1st a number of other routes in the State are to be started. It is believed that by the first of the year 100 routes will be in operation in Kentucky.

Mr. John W. Westover, who has been the editor of the Williamson County Courier for the past fifteen years, sold his outfit and business last week to Mr. Tim Needham, who is also an experienced newspaper man. The Courier is a first-class paper.

Hon. John S. Rhea carried all the counties in his district, but Simpson, and has again been nominated by the Democrats for a seat in Congress. The Republicans will name McKinney Moss—that is all—just name him as their candidate. Moss is dead politically and the thing he needs mostly now is a tombstone.

Troy, the escaped convict, and who murdered a dozen men or more, seeing that he would be captured, put a bullet through his own brains last week. The pursuing party shot him, breaking one of his legs. Knowing that he could not escape he took an end to his own miserable existence.

The Republican press is full of insinuations that the Democratic party is drifting; that it has no fixed purpose and that it will be unable to find an issue on which to make a fight both in the Congressional and the Presidential contests. We are aware of the fact that the Republican party is a great power; that it has entrenched itself behind class legislation and enjoys the confidence and support of corporate wealth; that it is controlling the destiny of our country, holding the liberty of millions of foreign people in the palm of its hand. We are further aware of the fact that it has popularized itself by playing into the hands of favorite classes at the expense of the great mass of people, that it is the tool of gigantic trusts and combines, which it has departed from the teaching and doctrines of its founders, wrapped its platforms in cash and is steering on the high seas of Commercialism. To sum it all up it is reduced to this: Any platform to deceive the great mass of voters, any policy to get the active aid of corporations and any legislation that will tend to prolong its hold upon the control of the government. Sooner or later the great body of people will find its true bearings, and will realize that Democrats have all along been ready to battle for such measures as will best serve the interests of that large majority who are not tied together by strong financial bonds but by a common band of unscrupulous leaders. They will discover that Democracy has ever been the true champion of such reforms as are actually needed. They will understand that it was for this purpose that the tariff battles have been fought and that it was on this line that the free coinage of money became the great issue.

The Democratic party stands for the constitution, it refuses to follow the flag to imperialism, or to sacrifice the rights and privileges of the masses for commercial interests. It has fixed principles and is not willing to forsake the right for the sake of victory. It is not dead, not drifting, not lacking for noble purposes, not bidding for issues. It will pursue the same bearings in the future that made it great in the past and has kept it through the trying ordeals of recent campaigns. Its future is bright and it will be a great power, a strong party, so long as it is able to combat wrong or justice fight injustice.

Mr. Bryan has settled for all time that he will not be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in 1904. While en route for Danville, Ill., last Friday, he stated positively that he would not be a candidate, and the reporter interview with him, sent out from Mason City, a few days ago, to the effect that he was a candidate, contained not one word of truth.

Hon. Vincent Boring's majority in the primary is large, probably over 8,000. Mr. Parker has published a card, submitting to the will of the majority and pledging his support to the nominee. Mr. Colson has not yet given out a statement for publication, but it is most generally believed that he will support Mr. Boring.

Judge M. C. Sankey, the present incumbent, and Hon. Robert Hardin, candidate for Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge, in the Danville district, opened the campaign at Harrisburg last week. Judge Sankey wants a primary. Mr. Hardin is not particular, satisfied with whatever action the party takes.

John W. Hufaker committed suicide at Louisville last Thursday afternoon. He was 82 years old and a brother of Jo Hufaker, who is Commonwealth's Attorney in the Louisville district. His father, Jeff Hufaker, was a native of Wayne county.

Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota are in the midst of the greatest harvests ever known. The cash realization from wheat, oats, fax and corn, which crop is fully in promise, is placed at $180,000,000. Barley will add $30,000,000.

The crowning of Edward as King of Great Britain and Ireland, and Emperor of India and Alexandria took place Sunday in Westminster Abbey, London.

Hon. H. C. Baker made a speech at Liberty last week in the interest of his candidacy for Circuit Judge. Mr. Miller, the other Republican candidate, who hails from Monroe County, was also at Liberty.

RUSSELL SPRINGS.

Ed. Chas. Powell, of Montgomery, Ala., preached here Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Kelsay, of Denton, Texas, was here this week. She has been visiting her brother, Col. C. C. Buster, of Cresselboro.

A. K. Kimble and F. W. Wade were in Cincinnati this week.

A lawn fete and ice cream supper will be given here on Wednesday night.

The Adair and Russell Telephone Co. have put in a new long distance instrument, which adds greatly to the service of that line.

Mr. Wm. Lovelace, of this place, who was confined in the Somerset jail charged with the robbery of Gaskins, at Fishing Creek, made his escape together with twelve other prisoners.

Dr. R. D. Horwitz, who has been sick at Elizabethtown will return home soon.

The Annual meeting of the Russell Springs Medical Society met here the 7th and 8th. A small crowd was in attendance, but an interesting meeting was reported.

On Thursday evening Mr. Bay Hart of Gray Craft, and Miss Guy of Perryton, registered at the Russell Springs Hotel and they were soon seated at a table to get a meal. After dinner, Mr. Hart came to the conclusion he did not care to get married and sent his bride back to her father next day.

The fair began Tuesday and the usual large crowd is expected, and we are ready to take care of the crowd. Some good stock will be here, and one of the special features is the balloon ascension.

JAMESTOWN.

Mr. W. S. Knight was in Albany last week.

Mr. Carlos Coffey, of McKinnon, passed through town last week enroute to Kentucky.

Mr. A. H. Baugh and Miss Clara Snow spent last week at the Russell Springs.

J. B. and W. S. Stone, of Monticello, passed through town Friday enroute home from Liberty.

Miss Hilda Rose is visiting friends in Monticello.

Mr. A. P. Simpson was quite sick last week.

Miss Oga Gann, who has been visiting relatives at Somerset and McKinney, will return home Sunday, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Katherine Beck, of McKinney.

Co. O. Howe is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mr. Bettie Owens, of Junction City, and Mrs. Laura Thomas, of McKinney, are visiting relatives in town last week.

Mr. W. C. Adams, of Liberty, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Rose.

Misses Louise Wilson, Zora, Bessie, Pearl Hufaker and Morris Hufaker, of Somerton, were the guests of Misses Ethel and Sallie Patterson last Saturday and Sunday.

FORTNELL.

The health of this community is good at this writing.

Mr. M. J. Smith, while canning berries a few days ago, happened to a painful accident, the jar breaking causing her arm to get cut and one eye was severely. She is improving rapidly.

Mr. D. Jeffries was in this country a few days ago after sheep. It seems that he and J. H. Smith are determined to get every last out of the country. That's right people improve your stock.

S. E. Rexroat, Father, Mother and started to Indiana to see relatives and after four days he returned home.

J. H. Smith purchased what is known as the Cravens farm on Goose creek, near Decatur, and contemplates working the white oak into staves and sawing the walnut and poplar. Consideration, $1200.00.

The Fair at Russell Springs is now in progress and every body reports a nice and enjoyable time.

Squire Hopper, Sr., lately purchased a new buggy of J. H. Smith & Co., for $60.

Honest Joe Lucas says he wants to change his name in the Posthill news agent. Joe is a nice fellow.

For a few days ago J. H. Smith called Squire Hopper and Mrs. P. L. Cunningham and J. W. Wilkerson to see his Berkshire pigs that are just two weeks old. They are beauties you bet.

The United "Baptist" church is to build a new church house at old Friendship, near this place. They aim to build of the best house in the country, and have pledged to the building fund, by far, the Fertile soil of Kentucky.

"Fertilizer," which lies between Posthill and Russell Springs is now on a boom, and soon will be the leading land, by far, of the Fertile soil of Ky.

IRVING'S STORE.

There have been several cases of diphtheria, but the health of the community is on the improve.

A g of rain fell here a few days ago, making the hearts of the farmers glad, as we have been in a drought for some time.

Smith Bros. are receiving new goods this week.

The schools in this community are progressing nicely. D. C. Hopper is the teacher of the school here.

R. P. Smith, the post-master here, is a man accomodating and liked by everybody.

Smith Bros. have received a lot of new buggies.

GARDEN BERRY.

Wheat threshing and straw making is all go in this community.

B. W. Hurt, our hustling merchant, has sold $400 worth of bogs this season and has about 40 head.

Mr. W. T. Loy will erect a new residence at an early date.

R. W. Hurt is on the sick list this week.

Spain W. C. Loy is in a low state of health.

BEATITUDES OF REVELATION.

The following Scriptural quotations were used by Eld. W. K. Azbill in preaching the funeral discourse over the remains of the late Mrs. Jennie Taylor, of this place:

1. "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy and keep those things which are written therein; for the time is at hand." Rev. 1:3.

2. "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, unto our God, forever and ever." Amen. Rev. 5:12; 7:12.

3. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth saith the Spirit, Yea, that they may rest from their labors, and their works to follow them." Rev. 14:13.

4. "Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame." Rev. 16:15.

5. "Blessed are they that are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. These are the true sayings of God." Rev. 19:9.

6. "Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection; on such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years." Rev. 20:6.

7. "Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." Rev. 22:14.

1st. As to intelligent attention.

2d. As to the most worthy of blessing.

3d. As to the abiding work of the worthy dead.

4th. As to the importance of being ready.

5th. As to the joys and honor that await.

6th. As to the endless reign and service.

7th. As to obedience, the ground of entrance upon the final blessings.

PHIL.

We had a very interesting series of meetings at the Christian church last week, conducted by Elds. J. Q. Montgomery and Wyatt Montgomery.

There were quite a number added to the church. Eld. J. Q. Montgomery gave a number of lessons on Christian duty. How to resist sin, overcome evil and fight the good fight of faith. On Wednesday, July 30th, we had a basket dinner, it being the birthday of both preachers. Bro. Joe was 50 years of age and has spent half his life in work for his Master. He has preached for this church seven years and it is the unanimous voice of the members that he has done a great work.

Bro. Wyatt Montgomery, our regular pastor, was 27 years old. He is a well informed young man, an able speaker, and the church is well pleased with his work.

The health of our community is good.

We are having some good showers of rain, but it is still dry in some localities.

Coco crops are few on low land, but light on thin land.

Mr. Lewis Morgan, of Whitley county, is visiting friends here.

Mr. George (Gadson) is visiting friends in Mercer county.

Moses J. B. Daniel and Bramlette Thorne are delivering a fine lot of staves at this place for Colter & Weller.

George Minton has removed to Baldock.

A foreign journal of agriculture claims that the largest lumber in the world is one in Australia. It is built on the hot house principle and has a capacity of eleven thousand four hundred and forty ducks' eggs or fourteen thousand eight hundred hen's eggs. The egg trays each hold one hundred and thirty ducks' eggs or one hundred and sixty hen's eggs. Beet is supplied by means of steam pipes. From seventy to eighty per cent. of the eggs usually hatch out.

John S. Rhee had a walk over for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Third district, carrying every county except Simpson, which went for Hobby.

Hon. W. P. Thorne, of Henry county, has opened his campaign for lieutenant governor.

NORA SANDIGE, Secretary.

FAT AND LEAN-IRISTOCRATS.

As was certain to follow so absurd a statement, so solemn assertion by an Eastern newspaper that Mr. Balfour was made Premier of Great Britain to succeed Lord Salisbury because he "is an aristocrat of aristocrats," who "carries his credentials of birth and breeding in face and figure and in every physical movement," is being received with undisguised amusement.

The Syracuse Post-Standard, which thus evidently believes so devoutly in the theory that aristocratic birth is shewn in the possession of a long, lank and languid frame such as that of Mr. Balfour's, is being received instantaneously by the contrary case of Lord Salisbury, his uncle. The latter is of the direct line of the proud Cawdor. It is being pointed out, while Balfour is only of a collateral branch. Yet Salisbury, the most aristocratic of English aristocrats, is a vast, unwieldy, lumbering bulk of a man, stoop-shouldered and shuffling of gait, red-necked and hairy.

All of which goes to show that you can lay down any cast-iron rule as to these matters. The son of a thousand-bellied Earl is just as likely to be fat and florid as lean and lilylike. And, doubtless, he is just as much an aristocrat—more, indeed, in substance—weighing 250 pounds as when the feet of the beam at the less leathery 120.

You have to take your aristocracy by and large, exactly as you take cattle in a round-up, the fat and the lean tie together—and we just as much aristocrat or cattie as the other.—St. Louis Republic.

ONE OF THE RESULTS.

When the big shipping-trust was formed a few weeks ago, there was great rejoicing in the ranks of those who looked no deeper than the surface of affairs.

It was boasted that this movement placed the American merchant marine in a position of proud pre-eminence; it had not before enjoyed since the civil war; it was claimed that it was a "magnificent peaceful victory, made possible only by existing protective material conditions of the country." It was a great occasion. The combinationists threw up their $10 Panamas and the eagle screamed.

But a change has come over the spirit of these dreams. As one of the organs of consolidation and combination defines, the difference between separation and realization in the context of a mid-kick: "With feeling of gratification, is somewhat mitigated by the discovery that, simultaneously with the formation of the trust, passenger rates have been substantially advanced. The charges previously exacted, it would seem, had already reached the limit of possibility, and it is a matter of surprise to find that the rates on the steamers controlled by the trusts have been advanced from twenty to fifty per cent."

"There was ever,

"The public be d—d," says the trusts

Whenever competition ends and combination begins the public suffers. That is the history of all trusts.—Glasgow Times.

THE STRIKE FOLLY.

We appeal to the intelligence of any man if the dispatches from Sheashead, Pa., do not show a serious defect in our system of government.

There are two policemen shot and the police force put out of business; one merchant clubbed to death, thirty or forty miners wounded—some of them fatally—the sheriff helpless and the vicinity in a state of anarchy until troops arrive.

Why?

Because we say that employers and employees must settle their own disputes, and that our only duty is to preserve order while the settlement is made. And how beautifully we preserve order as a general rule.

Of course everybody will condemn the miners who started the riot. But who were they? A lot of Poles and Hungarians who had been imported in violation of law by the coal operators.

The miners' organization tried to preserve order, and the district president issued a proclamation strongly condemning the outbreak and directing the members to aid in keeping the peace.

Governor Stove was called upon for troops by the sheriff, and declined to send them unless the citizens of the town petitioned for them. The reports say that merchants refused to sign a petition from fear that they would be boycotted by the miners if they did.

And so the master directed on, with everybody reasonably anticipating what would happen. And we call this government.

Governor Stove was called upon for troops by the sheriff, and declined to send them unless the citizens of the town petitioned for them. The reports say that merchants refused to sign a petition from fear that they would be boycotted by the miners if they did.

And so the master directed on, with everybody reasonably anticipating what would happen. And we call this government.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The following is the program for the Teachers' Association to be held at Breeding Saturday September 6, 1902:

"There was ever,

"The public be d—d," says the trusts

Whenever competition ends and combination begins the public suffers. That is the history of all trusts.—Glasgow Times.

THE STRIKE FOLLY.

We appeal to the intelligence of any man if the dispatches from Sheashead, Pa., do not show a serious defect in our system of government.

Whenever competition ends and combination begins the public suffers. That is the history of all trusts.—Glasgow Times.
